LEGALLY BINDING TERMS & CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT
FOR APPRENTICES
ENROLLING WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF BOLTON

Important Notice:

Terms & Conditions of Enrolment for all students who wish to study at the University. These Terms & Conditions of Enrolment together with your offer letter, Policy, Course Fees Policy, and other University Rules, Regulations, Policies and Procedures that apply to students (Student Policy Zone), will form an essential part of the contract between the University and you (the student). Please read this document and all other information carefully.

If you are a continuing student, you will be required to enrol for each year of -line enrolment process) and to make yourself aware of the most recent version of the Student Admissions Policy, Course Fees Policy and other University Rules, Regulations, Policies and Zone). You will be required to read and accept the current version of these Terms & Conditions of Enrolment, which will be an update to your continuing contract.

If you have any queries regarding this documentation then you should make further enquiries of the University prior to commencing the enrolment process.

As part of the enrolment process, you will be asked to carefully read and understand each condition below; please note that after reading each condition you will be asked to tick an acceptance box to indicate your agreement to that condition. The enrolment process will be concluded once you have ticked each and every acceptance box to indicate your agreement to these Terms & Conditions of Enrolment and the University will then confirm to you completion of your enrolment to study. At this point these Terms & Conditions of Enrolment will be legally binding on you and the University.

If you decline to accept each condition of enrolment these Terms & Conditions of Enrolment. If you commence attendance on a course of study prior to enrolling or during the cancellation period you will be liable to pay the University an amount in accordance with the Course Fees Policy 2024/25 until you communicate cancellation to the University.

Below are the statements that you will be asked to read and accept as conditions of your enrolment at the University which form an essential part of the contract between us for your course of study at the University.

The University may have to make changes to your contract during your course. Such changes will be fair and normally take effect at the start of the next academic year, which will be communicated to you in annually reviewed and updated Terms and Conditions of Enrolment. You will be asked to read and accept the most recent version of these Terms and Conditions upon re-enrolment. Should it be necessary to make changes during the academic year, understand and I am fully aware that students may remain liable for outstanding tuition fees following expulsion from the University.

6. I understand and I am fully aware of the Student Non-Academic Conduct and Disciplinary Policy and Procedure available via the Student Policy Zone (www.bolton.ac.uk/student-policy-zone/). I understand and accept that this policy applies to all students and that the University reserves the right to apply sanctions (including expulsion). I understand and I am fully aware that students may remain liable for outstanding tuition fees following expulsion from the University.
7. I understand and agree to attend, when requested by the University, all mandatory information sessions associated with my enrolment and study at the University. I understand and I am fully aware that the University expects full attendance and engagement with scheduled sessions and activities forming part of my course in line with the Student Policy Zone (www.bolton.ac.uk/student-policy-zone/).
8. I understand and accept that certain subjects may require me to demonstrate particular competence standards before I am accepted on to, progress within or successfully complete, a course or programme of study. I accept that whilst the University will make reasonable adjustments to ensure that I am not disadvantaged in demonstrating my competence, no adjustments will be made to competence standards deemed justifiable to the course or programme of study in question.
9. I understand and accept it is a condition of my entry on to the course, and my subsequent continuation on the course, that I remain employed by my course sponsor (my employer) and that my course sponsor has a contract with the University.
10. I understand and accept that if I am registered on a course of study leading to a professional qualification I may also be subject to regulations relating to fitness to practice which are drawn up in light of guidance issued by the relevant professional body. I have read and accept the Fitness to Practise Procedure and agree not to engage in any conduct which renders me unfit to be admitted to and practise the relevant profession. I understand and I am fully aware that I am required to keep the University informed about any changes in my personal circumstances (such as any misconduct, criminal activity or health-related updates) which could affect my fitness to practise. I understand and I am fully aware that where the University determines my fitness to practise is impaired, it may take appropriate steps (including terminating my programme or study or confirming my expulsion) depending on the circumstances.
11. I understand and I am fully aware that if I am an international student, I need the correct visa to study and need to comply with all immigration requirements. I agree that this is my responsibility and that I must stay up to date with current immigration rules and guidance that apply to me. I understand that I must keep the University updated in relation to any change which may impact my right to study in the UK and that my enrolment / ongoing studies may be terminated where I no longer have permission to remain in the UK; my student visa is revoked; and/or the University is required to take action under its Home Office sponsor duties or to avoid breach of its legal or compliance duties.
12. I accept a place on the course as stated in the on-line enrolment and I agree that I will undertake my studies in a diligent and responsible manner and have due respect for my fellow students and University staff.
13. I understand and accept that the University will make every effort to provide education services with reasonable care and skill and in the manner set out in its published material. I accept that the University cannot guarantee that teaching and supervision will be provided by any particular named individuals or mode of delivery. I understand that the content of individual courses are under constant academic review and may change from time to time and any change to a course will be made in consultation with enrolled students affected by the change and in accordance with Modification to a reasonably and which I will be entitled to receive fair and reasonable notice. The content of course modules and mode of associated assessments may be updated on an annual basis. This is to ensure that all modules are up-to-date and responsive to employment and sector needs. The published course material and the programme to circumstances outside of our control. For this reason, the University cannot guarantee to run any specific optional module. I further understand that I am able to withdraw from my course of study in accordance with the Course Fees Policy if I am adversely affected by any change to my course.

14. I understand and accept that the University will endeavour to continue to deliver programmes where students have already accepted an offer or have enrolled. However, I accept that there may be occasions where the University may need to suspend or close a programme and that the University will make all efforts to mitigate any impact on students in accordance with the Policy for Suspending or Closing a Programme (available at: <https://www.bolton.ac.uk/student-policy-zone/>).
15. I understand and accept that external factors such as a pandemic, industrial action or other circumstances beyond the control of the University may make it impossible for the University to provide those education services offered. For this reason the University may have to make variations and will make every effort to minimise any disruption that may result from such changes and will seek to provide fair and reasonable remedy to those adversely affected by such disruption.
16. I understand and accept it is a condition of my entry on to the course, and my subsequent continuation in each Academic Year, that I formally enrol for each year of the course in accordance with the University's enrolment process.
17. I understand and accept that the tuition fees for my course are paid by my course sponsor (my employer) in accordance with the contract that my course sponsor has with the University.
